Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 15 September 2005.
- 2a) ☐ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☒ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

Disposition of Claims

- 4) ☒ Claim(s) 1-13 is/are pending in the application.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ebata et al U.S. Patent Number 6,708,209.

Re Claim 1, fig. 4 teaches a table associating the address ranges for different organizations i.e., organization A is associated with 172.16.12.1/24 and organization B is associated with 172.16.13.1/24 (associated information relating to address ranges of the sub-regions) stored in Policy Server (a resource manager) of fig. 5 (See col. 4, lines 50-62) wherein each Policy Server (PS) includes a Network Path Information DB 305a (routes through the sub-regions, each from a source sub-regions to a destination sub-regions) and fig. 6 further teaches a table sections (f) & (g) the allocated resources between the organizations (the transmission system resources between the subregions) (See col. 5, lines 3-64 also see col. 6, lines 1-22) wherein the table does not include resources within the organization; fig. 17 teaches a message format that when a connection is initialized, the format includes Band Upper limit for Reservation 50504 & Band Upper Limit for Immediate 50505 (signaling a requested scope of resources) and sources and destination addresses (See col. 12, lines 1-25), in particular fig. 19, step 514 & 306 teaches the processing of the signaling message at the PS, in step 514 Search for Network Path (ascertaining...route through the network), wherein the Operation Policy Search/Update Unit 302 verifies the resources allocation request by searching the policy database to determine whether the request (in consideration of the requested scope of resources) meets the requirements (authorized) associated with requested resources and path wherein and when the resources allocation request preprocessing unit (Step 306), fig. 21 initiates the inter-organization resource allocation unit 310 that determines a secure resource allocation between organizations (the transmission system resources between the subregions of the route) (See col. 14, lines 44-65) but not within the subregions of the route.

Re Claim 2, refer to Claim 1, fig. 19, step 310 reserves the resources between organizations after the path have been determine in step 514.

Re Claim 3, refer to Claim 1, fig. 4 teaches the Organization A further divided in BR region (subdivided into further sub-regions) and fig. 6 teaches the inter-organization resources policy table (allocating to each further sub-regions) and fig. 8 teaches the intra-organization policy table (at least one path between the sub-regions).

Re Claims 4, 5, refer to Claim 1, wherein fig. 4 supports Internet and IP address ranges.

Re Claim 6, refer to Claim 1, fig. 4 teaches Organization ID (an item of information) wherein the organization can be either source or destination sub-regions; Border Router Name (information relating to the sub-regions situated between the subregions) are situated between organizations; Organization Management Table of fig. 5 (information relating to the connection paths).

Re Claims 7, 12, 13, refer to Claim 1, wherein the Resources allocation Schedule DB indicates the resources are subdivided into partial resources for a specific service requests, and fig. 19, step 501 determines whether the request meets the user requirements for the prescribe policy based on priority (a specific service & QoS) and permitted Band (at least one partial resource).

Re Claims 8, 10, 11, refer to Claim 1, fig. 19, step 516, Resource Allocation Decision is based on the a sum of the allocated resources and the prescribe resource policy table.

Re Claim 9, refer to Claim 1, fig. 23, step 516, signaling an authorization and non-authorization to a terminal.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed 9/15/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Re Claim 1, Applicant argues, "a method that one performs "inter-organization resources allocation when necessary". Examiner agrees. However, Applicant is directed to the request 108a of fig. 19. As shown, the Request A and Destination B are within the same organization or sub-region, hence "No" inter-organization resources allocation is necessary. However, when the Request A request a destination outside its organization, Inter-organization resource allocation is necessary. Determining the inter-organization resource allocation assures the QoS between the organizations.
